VISION, MISSION AND GOAL

NXF VISION FOR SOCIETY

The NXF want all LGBTQ+ people to live freely and be treated as equal citizens: fully included, legally protected and living without fear, discrimination or persecution.

Our vision is a society where every individual, regardless of their sexual identity, gender identity and gender expression, lives free from oppression, discrimination and violence. We strive to challenge the status quo, celebrate diversity, and empower marginalised groups within the LGBTQ+ community and beyond.

NXF MISSION

Our mission is to connect, celebrate and empower the LGBTQ+ community and movement in Ireland.

NXF GOAL

Our goal is to promote the welfare, health and wellbeing of all LGBTQ+ people through activism, education and publications and by growing and supporting a strong spirit of community amongst all LGBTQ+ people in Ireland through an annual programme of events and activities.

NXF WORK

Each year the NXF will develop a programme of work to incorporate actions that Connect, Celebrate and Empower individuals, groups and organisations within our LGBTQ+ communities.

Connecting..... our website, social media, GCN, organising gatherings, co-operation with other LGBTQ+ organisations, contributing to advocacy and lobbying for legal reform. We aim to create two new events – the Activist Academy and the Rainbow Summit.

Celebrating..... the GALAS awards, the Archive, GCN and keeping the history of past achievements and struggles.

Empowering..... creating development opportunities for new leadership, undertaking research and promoting publication and exhibition of archive work.
